

PERSONALS.

Emile Wise returned last night from Houston.

Judge Wells left Monday to attend court at San Diego.

W. C. Lewis, one of Santa Maria's truck colony, is in town.

J. L. Landrum of San Benito was doing business in town today.

P. E. Blalack returned Monday night from a short business trip to San Antonio.

E. H. Herman and wife of the Gulf Coast Magazine arrived last night and are at the Miller.

F. J. Cutting and I. J. Shapley, prominent residents of Mercedes, are visitors in the city today.

Celestino P. Barreda, the well known stock buyer of Cienfuegos, Cuba, arrived in the city last night from Tampico.

Hon. C. F. Elkins and wife left today for Austin, where they go to visit Mrs. Elkins, parents, with whom they will spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. A. Celaya, who accompanied Mr. Celaya to Houston last week, has gone to San Antonio, where she will spend some time for the benefit of her health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sprague and little daughter, Harriet, arrived last night from La Coma ranch in Hidalgo county and are the guests of Mrs. Sprague's sisters, Mrs. Floyd Layton and Miss Kennedy.

President F. H. Lindenberg of the Ohio and Texas Sugar Company arrived Monday night from Columbus, Ohio, and will spend a short time here inspecting the progress of the work on the big $300,000 sugar mill which the company is building at the Blalack place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and children returned Monday night from San Antonio, where they attended the Baptist convention. While there they were the guests of Mr. Blalack's family, who are making their home in San Antonio at present, while the children attend school.

Charles Blalack returned Monday night from a visit to Columbus, Ohio, where he was the guest of President Lindenberg of the Ohio and Texas Sugar Company. Charlie reports a fine time. He brought back a handsome blooded bull pup of which he is very proud.

Mrs. Noah Allen returned last night from a visit of about a month to her former home at Houston. Part of her business there was to pack and superintend the shipment of their household effects to Brownsville, as Judge and Mrs. Allen expect to make their permanent home here.

Dr. F. J. Combe, the mayor, returned last night from Houston, where he attended the carnival and also represented Brownsville as one of the delegates from this city at the Inland Waterways Convention. He reports a fine time in the Carnival City, and received royal treatment from his many friends and acquaintances while there.

Mrs. A. G. Putegnat, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace, Mrs. Geo. More, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Layton, Miss Mary More, Miss Lott, Miss Brulay, Miss Bollack, Miss Cavazos, Frank More and Will Putegnat were among those who went from Brownsville last evening to attend the More-Gay wedding at Olmito. All went out by private conveyance and returned on the train last night.

MORE-GAY NUPTIALS.

Pretty Home Wedding at Olmito, Unites Young Man from this City with Young Lady of that Place.

At the home of Judge and Mrs. David Portus Gay at Olmito, at half past six o'clock p. m., Tuesday, Nov. 12, their daughter, Lena Lee Gay, was united in marriage to Charles Hinton More, son of Mrs. George More of Brownsville. As announced previously, only a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties were privileged to witness the ceremony. The home was transformed into a bower of beauty with pretty floral decorations, ferns, trailing vines, etc., making a fitting setting for the wedding of the only daughter of the family. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed was especially attractive, white chrysanthemums in great profusion being the sole flower used.

The Episcopal ritual was used, Rev. John P. Carter, rector of the Church of the Advent of Brownsville, officiating, and the wedding March from "Lohengrin" being played by Miss Cavazos. The bride made a lovely picture, attired in a beautiful gown of embroidered white mull, with very handsome garniture of real valenciennes lace motifs and edging. She wore a long tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ferns, the same flowers with tiny fern leaves being used to fasten the veil on her hair. Her only attendant was Miss Eugenie Brulay of this city, who was becomingly gowned in white pineapple tissue and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was accompanied by Will Putegnat of this city as best man.

After the conclusion of the ceremony and the customary congratulations and good wishes, the guests were invited to the dining room where light refreshments were served and the health, happiness and prosperity of the bridal pair were pledged in sparkling champagne.

A short time was spent in informal chat and pleasantry, while the bride soon slipped away to don her travelling gown, a very handsome tailored suit of brown broadcloth made with long coat and hat to match, and by the time the train arrived at Olmito the bridal pair and guests from this city were ready to start for Brownsville, arriving here at 9:25 o'clock.

On reaching town they were driven to the home of the groom's mother Mrs. George More, where they were later complimented with serenades by the local band and also by the Mexican military band which arrived from Houston last night, which were secured by some of their friends for the purpose.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. More crossed to Matamoros and took the Mexican National train for a two weeks bridal trip in that country, on which they will go as far south as Mexico City. On their return they will be at home to their friends at the More residence in Brownsville, as they will make their home here.

The gifts received by the bride were numerous and handsome bespeaking the high esteem in which both Mr. More and his bride are held. Both are among the most popular members of society here, and they begin their wedded life amidst the good wishes of a host of friends.
